

Golden Rules of Internet Safety

1. http:// = unsecured vs. https:// = secure
2. Children's computer times should ALWAYS be supervised.
3. Computer use should be in public area of home; not in child's room.
4. Develop family rules for computer use & time allowed.
5. Know the sites/activities children are involved in.
6. Know passwords and screen names used by your child.
7. Know all on-line contact/friends for your children.

GetNetWise: <http://www.getnetwise.org/>

Golden Rules of Internet Safety

1. http:// = unsecured vs. https:// = secure
2. Children's computer times should ALWAYS be supervised.
3. Computer use should be in public area of home; not in child's room.
4. Develop family rules for computer use & time allowed.
5. Know the sites/activities children are involved in.
6. Know passwords and screen names used by your child.
7. Know all on-line contact/friends for your children.

GetNetWise: <http://www.getnetwise.org/>

Golden Rules of Internet Safety

1. http:// = unsecured vs. https:// = secure
2. Children's computer times should ALWAYS be supervised.
3. Computer use should be in public area of home; not in child's room.
4. Develop family rules for computer use & time allowed.
5. Know the sites/activities children are involved in.
6. Know passwords and screen names used by your child.
7. Know all on-line contact/friends for your children.

GetNetWise: <http://www.getnetwise.org/>

Golden Rules of Internet Safety

1. http:// = unsecured vs. https:// = secure
2. Children's computer times should ALWAYS be supervised.
3. Computer use should be in public area of home; not in child's room.
4. Develop family rules for computer use & time allowed.
5. Know the sites/activities children are involved in.
6. Know passwords and screen names used by your child.
7. Know all on-line contact/friends for your children.

GetNetWise: <http://www.getnetwise.org/>

Golden Rules of Internet Safety

1. http:// = unsecured vs. https:// = secure
2. Children's computer times should ALWAYS be supervised.
3. Computer use should be in public area of home; not in child's room.
4. Develop family rules for computer use & time allowed.
5. Know the sites/activities children are involved in.
6. Know passwords and screen names used by your child.
7. Know all on-line contact/friends for your children.

GetNetWise: <http://www.getnetwise.org/>

Golden Rules of Internet Safety

1. http:// = unsecured vs. https:// = secure
2. Children's computer times should ALWAYS be supervised.
3. Computer use should be in public area of home; not in child's room.
4. Develop family rules for computer use & time allowed.
5. Know the sites/activities children are involved in.
6. Know passwords and screen names used by your child.
7. Know all on-line contact/friends for your children.

GetNetWise: <http://www.getnetwise.org/>

Golden Rules of Internet Safety

1. http:// = unsecured vs. https:// = secure
2. Children's computer times should ALWAYS be supervised.
3. Computer use should be in public area of home; not in child's room.
4. Develop family rules for computer use & time allowed.
5. Know the sites/activities children are involved in.
6. Know passwords and screen names used by your child.
7. Know all on-line contact/friends for your children.

GetNetWise: <http://www.getnetwise.org/>

Golden Rules of Internet Safety

1. http:// = unsecured vs. https:// = secure
2. Children's computer times should ALWAYS be supervised.
3. Computer use should be in public area of home; not in child's room.
4. Develop family rules for computer use & time allowed.
5. Know the sites/activities children are involved in.
6. Know passwords and screen names used by your child.
7. Know all on-line contact/friends for your children.

GetNetWise: <http://www.getnetwise.org/>